

SATURDAY MORNING COURIER

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1893.

Notice.
The undersigned hereby gives notice that it will not be responsible for or pay any debt incurred by employees, except those for which an order is given personally signed by him. This rule is imperative.
COURIER PUB. CO.
LINCOLN, NEB., MAY 1ST 1893

WINTER STYLE OF THE DUPLEX HAT.

NOW IN.
W. R. Dennis & Co.
1137 O Street.

The Courier can be found at Hotel Lincoln News Stand.
Windsor Hotel News Stand.
Capital Hotel News Stand.
Re-1 Dude Cigar Store, 1020 O St.
Ed. Young, 1207 O St.
Chason, Fletcher & Co., 1120 O St.
Moore's News Stand, 118 So. 11th St.
Courier Office, 1201 O St.
Archib. Ensign, 217 So 11th St.

FINE PRINTING AND ENGRAVING.

The Courier Publishing Company is prepared to do all kinds of printing, fine work, especially, at moderate prices; also engraving, wedding invitations, calling cards, etc., Call and see samples.

SATURDAY MORNING COURIER,
1201 O street.

The Best Laundry
Townsend & Plamondon proprietors, 2208
O street, telephone 579.

W. C. Davis, D. D. S.,
Diseases of the teeth, mouth and face.
Rooms 501-2-3, Grace bldg., cor. 15th and O.

How's This?
We offer One Hundred Dollars reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last fifteen years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him.

WATER & TRUAX, Wholesale Druggists,
Toledo, O. WARDING, KINMAN & MARVIN,
Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Notice.
Notice of articles of incorporation of the West Park Land company, of Lincoln, Nebraska, filed on the 21st day of October, 1893.

I. NAME OF THIS CORPORATION:
The name of this corporation shall be the West Park Land Company.

II. PRINCIPAL PLACE OF TRANSACTIONS:
The principal place of transacting the business of this corporation shall be in Lincoln, Lancaster county, Nebraska, but said corporation shall have power to establish branch offices at New York City, New York, and San Francisco, California.

III. THE GENERAL NATURE OF THE BUSINESS TO BE TRANSACTED:
The general nature of the business to be transacted by this corporation shall be the purchase and sale of real estate in the state of Nebraska and elsewhere, to accept and hold the title thereto, to erect buildings thereon, to improve, enlarge, repair and furnish the same, to loan and borrow money and to give and take necessary security for the same, to rent or lease, or any part of the property held by or placed in the custody of said corporation, and such other business as may be necessary to carry out the general purpose of the business to be transacted.

IV. THE AMOUNT OF CAPITAL STOCK AUTHORIZED:
The amount of capital stock authorized is one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars, which shall be represented by certificates of stock of one hundred ($100.00) dollars each, which shall be non-assessable and fully paid up before the commencement of business of this corporation.

The capital stock may be increased at any regular meeting of the stockholders or any special meeting called for that purpose.

V. TIME OF COMMENCEMENT OF THE LIFE OF THE CORPORATION:
The life of this corporation shall commence on the 28th day of October, 1893, and shall terminate on the 27th day of October, 1943, unless it shall be dissolved in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

VI. THE HIGHEST AMOUNT OF INDEBTEDNESS:
The highest amount of indebtedness or liability which this corporation shall at any one time subject itself, shall be one-quarter of the amount of capital stock.

VII. THE OFFICERS:
The affairs and business of this corporation shall be managed by a board of five directors, all of whom shall be stockholders, and each of whom shall own not less than ten (10) shares of the capital stock, by a president, a vice president, a secretary and a treasurer, and the president shall be eligible to the office of treasurer.

FRANK L. SHELTON,
LAWRENCE L. BURR,
CHAS. L. BURR,
CARLOS C. BURR,
C. B. SHELTON.

Incorporators.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order of sale issued by the clerk of the district court of the third judicial district of Nebraska, within and for Lancaster county, in an action wherein James E. Baum is plaintiff, and Christian F. Jorgensen et al, defendants, I will at 2 o'clock p. m., on the 14th day of December, A. D. 1893, at the east door of the court house, in the city of Lincoln, Lancaster county, Nebraska, offer for sale at public auction the following described real estate to-wit:

Lots numbered twelve (12) to twenty-two (22) inclusive in block fourteen (14), lots twelve (12) to twenty-two (22) inclusive in block sixteen (16), lots one (1) to seven (7) in block twenty (20), lots one (1) to seven (7) in block twenty-two (22) inclusive in block ten (10), lots numbered twelve (12) to twenty-two (22) inclusive in block sixteen (16), lots one (1) to seven (7) in block twenty (20), lots one (1) to seven (7) in block twenty-two (22) inclusive in block eight (8), lots three (3) to thirteen (13) inclusive in block one (1), lots sixteen (16) to twenty (20) inclusive in block two (2), lots seven (7) in block twelve (12), lot eight (8) in block four (4), lots seven (7) and eight (8) in block five (5), lots twelve (12) to sixteen (16) inclusive in block nine (9), lots seven (7) to eleven (11) inclusive in block sixteen (16), all of the above lots and blocks in Garretts addition to the city of Lincoln, Lancaster county, Nebraska.

Given under my hand this 21st day of October A. D. 1893.

RAM McCLAY, Sheriff.

THE LIMEKILN CLUB.

THE TRUE SPIRIT OF PHILOSOPHY SET

FORTH BY BROTHER GARDNER.

The Logic of Certain Events as Plain as the Nose on Your Face—Brother Gardner Holds Up a Few Conspicuous Examples to the Public Gaze.

[Copyright, 1893, by Charles B. Lewis.]

"It has come to my knowledge," said Brother Gardner, after the stove had been lighted up and the windows lowered to let out the smoke—"It has come to my knowledge that Brudder Waydown Beebe has just about dun gone crazy on de subject of philosophy. I also Para dat Kurnel Johnson has spent $6 fur books on dat subject, although it's powerful hard work fur him to spell 'em' an git de words in whar dey belong. Also dat Elder Toots has bin a-sittin in his cabin fur de last week, shoes off an feet on a chair, a tryin to find out whar dar am a hotness 'bout heat an a coldness 'bout cold. 'Desd, but dar seems to be a sort o' craze among de members of dis Limekiln club just now fur philosophy, an I want to say a few words to yo' who am present."

"Dar hain't no secret 'bout dis philosophy business, an dar hain't no sorter use fur any of yo' to spend any money or loaf about de house. I kin tell yo' all yo' want to know. All yo' need am plain, eberday philosophy, widout any silver platin on it. De philosophy of philosophy am as plain as de nose on yo' face. Fur instance:

"If Samuel Shin spends fo' days in de week loafin around saloons an foolin wid game chickens, some of de Shin children hev got to go b'arf."

"If Antimony Johnson loses $12 wuth of time to win $2 on a horse race, he's $10 short, an all de finger in de world can't make it any odder way."

"Brudder Cabiff aims $20 per week. He has a wife an six chillen an keeps five dawgs. Does philosophy encourage him in de hope of bein worf a million dollars some day? Not much! Philosophy says he'll be mighty lucky if he ever gets 15 cents ahead of de game."

"On fo'ly different occasions last summer I saw Judge Primrose asleep on his doahsteps when odder men war at work. Am philosophy providin him wid chicken pottle an Mocha coffee dis winter? Not as we know of. On de contrary, he's powerful happy when he bumps his head agin a cold tater an a cup of 2 shillin tea."

"Last spring Shindig Watkins bought a gold watch fur $15 an a diamond pin fur $10 mo'. Dis fall he's got an ole towel pinned around him fur an undershirt an am makin pathetic inquiries 'bout de price of turnips. Do yo' want any better philosophy dan dat?"

"Last summer Majah Scott arrove in dis town from Virginny wid his family. He rented a box at de postoffice; his wife gin a high tea; he rented a piano at $5 per month; he bought tickets to strawberry festival, an de family was seen at de theater. De odder day dar was a crash which shook de United States. De majah reached de end of dat $140 he had got fur his muel when he left Virginny, and today he am huntin fur stoves to black. Dar was philosophy dar, but he didn't see it. Philosophy teaches us dat if yo' try to make $140 answer fur $1,000 something has got to bust sooner or later."

"De Rev. Penstock am another shinin example of philosophy. He had a $100 in de bank to run him frow dis winter. He drawed it out and took Mrs. Penstock to de seashore and stung on de beach of style. De odder day he borrowed half a dollar of me to buy co'mmeal. Philosophy orter told him dat if he spent his money gwine to de seashore he couldn't hev it to buy mince meat in de winter, but he couldn't see it."

"My frens, I do not wish to dictate, nor would I fo'e my advice upon any of yo'. I do hope, however, to find yo' consistent in dis philosophy business. De man who throws up a cash job to loaf around home an study philosophy may git a few theories, but he can't trade 'em fur meat or taters. De philosophy of heat won't buy an obercoat fur January weather. De philosophy of cold won't pay de rent in July. It may be mighty interestin to know whar de airth moves around de sun, but shoes and stockin's cost money. Yo' may wonder whar de wind blows, or whar de sea am salt, or whar de moon doan shine at noonday, but whar de landlord calls fur de rent he expects his cash money. About half philosophy, half boss sense an steady work at $2 a day am jest about de dose fur common folks like us. If de white folks kin stand a little mo', dat's deir lookout."

THE ARIZONA KICKER.

Old St Leatherhead Made Happy by a Mayor's Generosity.

HIS LAST YELL.—As mayor of this town we have been subjected to considerable unfavorable criticism for an incident which occurred last Saturday afternoon, and which the knockkneed critter who publishes the disbrag weekly down the street is determined to make the most of. About noon on Saturday, while we sat in the mayor's office in the city hall, old St Leatherhead came in. He had come down from his room on Bill Williams' mountain to buy bacon and powder. He had the same old mule he has owned for 11 years, and both St and the mule were looking sad and dejected. The old man had heard that Arizona was to be admitted to the Union, and that this town, which he helped to found, was becoming civilized enough to have sidewalks and telephones. He couldn't believe it till he got here and saw those things with his own eyes, and as he sat down in our office he wept like a child.

We felt sorry for the old man. When he told us that he was 63 years old and had no hope of living through the winter, it seemed a hard case. He had come down expectin to get drunk, ride his old mule through saloons and do considerable shooting and yelling, and it saddened our heart to be obliged to tell him that any such conduct would result in his arrest. Tears were falling down his aged cheeks as he asked us official permission to ride through just on' saloon and shoot six holes into the mirror behind the bar. When we had to refuse it, he begged to be allowed to gallop up and down the street and shoot at glass insulators on the telegraph poles. We couldn't sanction that either, but after discussing the matter we made a compromise with him. It was agreed that he might stand on the public square and utter a dozen old time boots and then go and get drunk, but there was to be no riding or shooting.

Old St selected 7 o'clock in the evening as his hour, and the city marshal was on hand to count his boots. The first three brought everybody into the street, and the next three started half the population out of shooting.

BOTH ST AND THE MULE LOOKED DEJECTED.

town. The last one was a grand windup, which jarred the shingles on the roofs, and when he got through the old man felt himself 10 years younger. An hour later he was laid away on a bed of shavings in a carpenter shop. We don't deny that it was against the ordinance, and we certainly had no legal authority to permit it, but we wanted to make old St happy once more and are willing to take the penalty.

ANOTHER MISTAKE.—When a stranger came to us as mayor the other day to get a license for "a grand aggregation of living curiosities," which he wanted to exhibit under a tent, we felt it our duty to warn him that if things were not up and up he would hear something drop. He treated our kindly intentions with lofty disdain, and we issued the license with a feeling that he would bump up against something new before the week was out. Wednesday evening he opened his show to the public. He had a big sign reading, "Gigantic Aggregation of Stupendous Curiosities" on the front of the tent, and the minute old Doc Poole got sight of it he opened fire, just as we had predicted. Before the city marshal could get to him he had shot off all the sign except "Gigan"—and had likewise scared most of the living curiosities into fits.

Among the exhibits was a fat boy from Ohio, warranted to weigh 230 pounds. Five or six of the boys hefted him and put his weight down at about 165 pounds. He was carried across the street and put on the scales, and when it was found that he weighed only 163 pounds things began to break loose. There was a wild girl from Borneo, who chewed gum so naturally that old Jim Fuller recognized her as a girl from Pike county, Mo. The living skeleton had more fat on his bones than the man who ran the show, and after considerable trouble it was found that "the biggest gorilla ever captured alive" was a boy fixed up for the occasion, and a poor fix at that.

This is a great locality for inevitable results. There was an inevitable result to this deception of the confiding public. There was a sudden yell from the 75 men inside the tent, and then the herd stampeded. Somebody abducted the wild girl of Borneo, and within a week we expect to announce her marriage. The fat boy was placed on a loose mule and sent off for a ride, the gorilla stripped of his skin and soundly spanked, and the last we saw of the proprietor of the show he was being tossed in a blanket and yelling for mercy. We understand that he left town on foot, and that the sheriff has charge of his tent and a box of snakes. As we have stated before, this is a good town for shows, but it must be a good show. We are an up and up people. We pay for what we get, but want what we pay for. If a theatrical company comes here to play "Hamlet," there must be no Uncle Tom and little Eva centering around on the stage, and if the play is "Uncle Tom's Cabin," then Hamlet has got to keep out of it, or some of the boys will shoot his whiskers off.

OBLIGING A JURY.

A Reputation That Couldn't Be Trusted

In Careless Hands.

The colonel and I stood talking in front of the postoffice when a colored man who held his cap in his hand approached and said:

"Kurnel Thomas, I h'ar yo' wants to git a man out on de plantation."

"Yes, I want a man out there," replied the colonel as he looked the negro over. "Seems to me I've seen you before?"

"Reckon not, sah. I've new aroun yere."

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

our official permission to ride through just on' saloon and shoot six holes into the mirror behind the bar. When we had to refuse it, he begged to be allowed to gallop up and down the street and shoot at glass insulators on the telegraph poles. We couldn't sanction that either, but after discussing the matter we made a compromise with him. It was agreed that he might stand on the public square and utter a dozen old time boots and then go and get drunk, but there was to be no riding or shooting.

Old St selected 7 o'clock in the evening as his hour, and the city marshal was on hand to count his boots. The first three brought everybody into the street, and the next three started half the population out of shooting.

BOTH ST AND THE MULE LOOKED DEJECTED.

town. The last one was a grand windup, which jarred the shingles on the roofs, and when he got through the old man felt himself 10 years younger. An hour later he was laid away on a bed of shavings in a carpenter shop. We don't deny that it was against the ordinance, and we certainly had no legal authority to permit it, but we wanted to make old St happy once more and are willing to take the penalty.

ANOTHER MISTAKE.—When a stranger came to us as mayor the other day to get a license for "a grand aggregation of living curiosities," which he wanted to exhibit under a tent, we felt it our duty to warn him that if things were not up and up he would hear something drop. He treated our kindly intentions with lofty disdain, and we issued the license with a feeling that he would bump up against something new before the week was out. Wednesday evening he opened his show to the public. He had a big sign reading, "Gigantic Aggregation of Stupendous Curiosities" on the front of the tent, and the minute old Doc Poole got sight of it he opened fire, just as we had predicted. Before the city marshal could get to him he had shot off all the sign except "Gigan"—and had likewise scared most of the living curiosities into fits.

Among the exhibits was a fat boy from Ohio, warranted to weigh 230 pounds. Five or six of the boys hefted him and put his weight down at about 165 pounds. He was carried across the street and put on the scales, and when it was found that he weighed only 163 pounds things began to break loose. There was a wild girl from Borneo, who chewed gum so naturally that old Jim Fuller recognized her as a girl from Pike county, Mo. The living skeleton had more fat on his bones than the man who ran the show, and after considerable trouble it was found that "the biggest gorilla ever captured alive" was a boy fixed up for the occasion, and a poor fix at that.

This is a great locality for inevitable results. There was an inevitable result to this deception of the confiding public. There was a sudden yell from the 75 men inside the tent, and then the herd stampeded. Somebody abducted the wild girl of Borneo, and within a week we expect to announce her marriage. The fat boy was placed on a loose mule and sent off for a ride, the gorilla stripped of his skin and soundly spanked, and the last we saw of the proprietor of the show he was being tossed in a blanket and yelling for mercy. We understand that he left town on foot, and that the sheriff has charge of his tent and a box of snakes. As we have stated before, this is a good town for shows, but it must be a good show. We are an up and up people. We pay for what we get, but want what we pay for. If a theatrical company comes here to play "Hamlet," there must be no Uncle Tom and little Eva centering around on the stage, and if the play is "Uncle Tom's Cabin," then Hamlet has got to keep out of it, or some of the boys will shoot his whiskers off.

OBLIGING A JURY.

A Reputation That Couldn't Be Trusted

In Careless Hands.

The colonel and I stood talking in front of the postoffice when a colored man who held his cap in his hand approached and said:

"Kurnel Thomas, I h'ar yo' wants to git a man out on de plantation."

"Yes, I want a man out there," replied the colonel as he looked the negro over. "Seems to me I've seen you before?"

"Reckon not, sah. I've new aroun yere."

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I do not know you," said the colonel.

"I